(3) In the case of Assistant Draftsman:

- (i) 25% of the posts by direct recruitment.
- (ii) 75% of the posts by promotion from Tracers.

(4) In the case of Junior Draftsman:

- (i) 50% of the posts by direct recruitment.
- (ii) 50% of the posts by promotion from Assistant Draftsman possessing prescribed qualification or have passed the prescribed examination from I.T.I. for the post of Assistant Draftsman.

7. Reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.—The reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes candidates will be in accordance with State Government instructions issued from time to time.

8. Probation of members of service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 3 may confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his services, or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct appointment or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of probation as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed four years.

9. Scale of pay etc. of the service.—The grades of pay of the service are mentioned in Annexure 'A' to these rules and are subject to revision from time to time.

10. Discipline, Penalty and appeal.—In the matter relating to discipline, penalties and appeals the member of the service and those appointed to the service shall be governed by the rules and orders as may be enforced by the Government.

11. Seniority of members of service.—(1) Subject to the provision of paragraph (2) below, persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all other in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules:

- (a) persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and
- (b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of paragraph (3) below permanent officers of the grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule (2) above the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment, on the recommendations of the selecting authority, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

(i) Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

(ii) Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier.

(iii) Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority, if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reasons recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the grade shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

(ii) where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merits which will determine the seniority of the persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the subordinate offices or the Central Government or other departments of State Governments shall be obtained in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

Explanatory Memorandum to Rule 12(4)(i).—(i) Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as their relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

(ii) A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotions in the Recruitment Rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25 % for direct recruitment each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees. Where the quotas are 50% each every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reason, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

(12) Leave pension and other matters.—In respect of pay, leave pension and all other cognate matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the member of service shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may have been, or may hereafter be adopted or made by the competent authority under Article 309 of the Constitution of India or under any law for the time being in force, made by the State Legislature and the rules made thereunder.

(13) Training and Examination etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify examination or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for the post.

(14) Other conditions of service.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules, members of the service shall be governed by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs' Notification No. 27/59-HIM(ii), dated July 13, 1959.

(15) Departmental Examination.—(a) Examination as mentioned in 6 (III) B (II) above shall be passed within five years of the appointment to the service as Tracer. No person will be eligible for appearing in the examination before completion of three years service as Tracer. The period can be extended at the discretion of the Chief Engineer, if a member of the service fails to pass the Departmental Examination within the prescribed or within the extended period, if any, he shall not be entitled to promotion as Assistant Draftsman.

(16) Oath of allegiance.—Every member of service, unless he has already done so, shall be required to take oath of allegiance to India and the Constitution of India as by law established.

(17) Liability of service.—A member of service shall be liable to serve at any place, whether within or outside the State of Himachal Pradesh, on being ordered to do so by the appointing authority.

(18) Repeal and savings.—Any rule applicable to the service and corresponding to any of these rules which is in force immediately before the commencement of these rules is hereby repealed:

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rule so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

(19) General.—In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the member of service shall be governed by such general rules as are deemed to have been or may hereafter be framed by the Government.
